****

Since both the writ petitions are similar in nature and involve similar question of law, therefore, they are being decided by this common order.

By way of these writ petitions, the petitioenrs prayed regularisation of their services. During the pendency of the writ petition, the services of the petitioners have been terminated.

In such circumstances, the question of regularisation does not arise. However, the petitioners are at liberty to redress their grievance before appropriate forum.

Consequently, both the writ petitions fail and are hereby dismissed.
